

Financial Bliss Mentorship:

Build a Better Bookkeeping Practice

Congratulations, you've gone freelance! You know how to keep the books clean -- now you're wondering how you'll build a business that will sustain you for a whole career. How do you keep your clients happy enough to give you referral after referral?

If you want to build a solid bookkeeping practice with long-term clients who appreciate your value, Bliss Your Money's two-month online mentorship program will help you solve your actual challenges with current clients and show you efficient strategies for all sorts of problems common to freelance bookkeepers. Seats are limited and we're starting on September 30, 2021, so join now!

- One-hour group meetings on Thursdays, 1 pm Eastern / 10 am Pacific for two months (8 hours total) starting September 30, including:
  - Two meetings per month with Bliss's most experienced financial consultant, Tia Marie Paquin, practicing since 1995;
  - One peer group meeting per month with another Bliss bookkeeper;
  - One group session per month with a mindset coach.
- A small cohort of peers for mutually-supportive business development;
  - A confidential environment for discussing your actual client concerns.
- 24/7 access to the Bliss Your Mindset curriculum for the duration of the program.

Who is this mentorship program for?

This program is for you if you have a freelance bookkeeping business that is under 5 years old.

What's not included in this program?

This program is NOT for those who want a marketing class.

Why do I need to know more than basic bookkeeping?

Improving your service allows you to stay competitive in a dynamic market where other bookkeeping companies quote bare-bones rates for bare-bones service.

Do you have bookkeeping experience?

Yes, the Bliss Team has over 50 years of experience providing bookkeeping services for retail, service, manufacturing, and nonprofit organizations.

What does it cost?

Tuition is $400 total, half paid up front and half paid later. There are no other costs to participate in this program.

How do I sign up?
